

Soft furnishings for Project UP

Project UP, a furniture upcycling and training workshop, donates fantastic, unique pieces to local families in need. The project is run by Groundwork, a charity that works with local communities to create better, greener spaces to live, and we were really excited to get involved! The Sewing Rooms produced this fabulous collection of soft furnishings, using beautiful Panaz fabrics.

Henry Moore designed fabric

Commissioned by David Whitehead & Sons to use Henry Moore-designed fabric, The Sewing Rooms upcycled several chairs with new covers and coordinating cushions. The finished products are now on display in the Henry Moore Museum! If you get a chance, stop by!

Hello!

Hard to believe, but it's true! It's the middle of September and Q4 is near! How this year has sped by! We've had an amazing time so far and are continually inspired by the wonderful people we meet through our projects. We've been out and about in the community a lot, so if you see any of us, please say hello!

If you'd like to read a bit more about what we do, why we do it and how, some of The Sewing Rooms' recent work was profiled in See Change, a Canadian social enterprise magazine. Our article is online here.

Look out for new products from our workshops, and if you have an idea you'd like us to help make into a reality, please get in touch! We have a fabulous selection of fabrics, pieces of furniture and ideas galore!

Completed Memory Cushions

With funding from the WO Street Foundation Lancashire Fund, The Sewing Rooms team completed the first Silver Sewers Memory Cushion project. Designed for local community members living with Early Stage Dementia, the Memory Cushion project provides physical reminders via the final product and a creative, supportive group experience. The feedback has been tremendous, and we're delighted to

Proud Patchwork Buddies

With grateful thanks to the fantastic women who took part, we're proud to announce that five participants from the first session of our Patchwork Buddies course have stayed on to mentor the new intake of learners. As you can see, the group produced superbly crafted, beautiful pieces. We're looking forward to seeing what the new set of creatives inspire us with!

be in the midst of running the second course.
